

2019-2020 Financial Aid Appeal - International

Students Legal Name: ID Number:

Financial aid available to International students is limited since many of our financial aid programs are sponsored by the US Department of Education and only available to US citizens or eligible non-citizens. Generally you are an eligible non-citizen and must first complete the FAFSA only if you meet any of these conditions:

- US permanent resident, with a Permanent Resident Card (formerly known as an Alien Registration Receipt Card or "Green Card") Conditional permanent resident (I-551C);
- Other eligible noncitizen with an Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) from the Department of Homeland Security showing any one of the following designations: "Refugee," "Asylum Granted," "Indefinite Parole," "Humanitarian Parole," or "Cuban-Haitian Entrant"; or
- A citizen of the Republic of Palau (PW), the Republic of the Marshall Islands (MH), or the Federated States of Micronesia (FM).

At JCU, international students will receive consideration for the funding available. However that funding is limited and students are expected to maximize all funding opportunities prior to being considered for additional gift assistance. We recognize the substantial investment families make when a student enrolls. Our hope is that every student finds John Carroll affordable. To that end, the Appeals Committee exists to consider formal requests for additional aid after an initial award is issued and when a family feels that their unique situation has not been captured or accurately reflected. The Committee will consider, subject to your circumstances and our budget availability, whether additional institutional aid may be awarded. In order to appeal, please:

1. Complete this form
2. Attach appropriate documentation
3. Submit a detailed letter about the nature of your situation
