

Learning Goals for Classical Studies

Students will be able to

1. Communicate
 - a. At the advanced low level in interpretive reading in Latin or Greek;
 - b. At the intermediate high level in presentational writing in Latin or Greek;
 - c. Skillfully in English.
2. Demonstrate knowledge about ancient Mediterranean societies in at least three of the following areas:
 - a. History,
 - b. Art history/material culture,
 - c. Philosophy, and
 - d. Literature;
3. Apply critical analysis and aesthetic appreciation; and
4. Explore modes of religious experience in the ancient world by completing a course in theology and religious studies.

Alignment with Academic Learning Goals

Graduates will	1	2	3	4
Demonstrate an integrative knowledge of the human and natural worlds;		X
Develop habits of critical analysis and aesthetic appreciation;			X
Apply creative and innovative thinking;
Communicate skillfully in multiple forms of expression;	X
Act competently in a global and diverse world;
Understand and promote social justice;
Apply a framework for examining ethical dilemmas;
Employ leadership and collaborative skills;
Understand the religious dimensions of human experience.				X

Alignment with Assessment Measures

Measure	1	2	3	4
Capstone Project	Direct	Direct	Direct	Direct
Senior Exit Interviews	Indirect	Indirect	Indirect	Indirect

This plan includes both the Classical Studies major and minor, and the minors in Latin and Greek.