

Learning Goals for MA Non-Profit Administration

Students will

1. Develop an understanding of contemporary ethical issues in the nonprofit sector and normative frameworks for addressing these challenges;
2. Communicate effectively using multiple forms of expression appropriate to nonprofit settings;
3. Have and use knowledge of functional areas of particular relevance in the nonprofit sector (e.g., human resources, financial management, resource development, evaluation, executive leadership) and management skills essential for building effective and efficient organizations;
4. Will have critical thinking and problem-solving skills; and
5. Will have leadership and collaborative skills relevant to organizations addressing growing social needs and resource constraints.

Master of Arts Nonprofit Administration - Curriculum Map: Where Objectives are Met: Where it is Taught

Learning OBJECTIVES	MA NPA Core Required Curriculum
	AC572	EC501	MN550	MN591	NP501	NP520	NP530	NP595
Our MA NPA graduates will	Accounting NP Orgs.	Economics NP Orgs	Leadership Managerial Skills	Ethics & Business Issues	Overview of NP Admin.	Advocacy NP Orgs.	Professional Communication NP Admins.	Integrative Capstone Project
1. Develop an understanding of contemporary ethical issues in the nonprofit sector and normative frameworks for addressing these challenges;				X		X
2. Communicate effectively using multiple forms of expression appropriate to nonprofit settings;						X	X
3. Have and use knowledge of functional areas of particular relevance in the nonprofit sector (e.g., human resources, financial management, resource development, evaluation, executive leadership) and management skills essential for building effective and efficient organizations;	X	X			X		X	X
4. Have critical thinking and problem-solving skills; and			X	X		X		X
5. Have leadership and collaborative skills relevant to organizations addressing growing social needs and resource constraints.			X					