

Learning Goals for the Professional Writing Program

Students will

1. Read texts with active, critical skill to form and articulate accomplished interpretations of those texts.
2. Produce written texts that represent professional genres and demonstrate awareness of audience, artistic form, organizational sophistication, and clear argumentation.
3. Recognize the employment and contextual use of the formal elements of language and genre.
4. Build oral communication skills by listening to others' ideas and articulating their own responses and questions clearly to situate themselves in the conversation.
5. Complete at least one professional internship that employs writing, editing, and communicating skills learned in PRW courses.
