

Congratulations to the BEAUDRY AWARD finalists!

Ty McTigue

Tyler McTigue is the son of Debbie Lesher and Tim McTigue from the suburbs of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He is a Business Management Major with a minor in leadership. After graduation, Ty plans to continue at GE Lighting in a brand management role, or enter the University of Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) program, a two year teaching service program, pending placement.

Leadership

Ty has been an orientation leader since 2011, and this past year was the senior orientation leader. He has been a tour guide since 2012. He also has been active in his fraternity of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He was the VP of Programming his freshmen year, and was the VP of Recruitment for IFC his junior year. Ty also works for the Institute of Catholic Studies and the Office for University Mission and Identity as a website coordinator. During his freshmen and sophomore year he was a restaurant manager at the North Park Grille. This past fall Ty was honored with a nomination to the Homecoming Court, and was named Homecoming King.

Commitment to Christian Values

Ty attended the Manresa 20 retreat, was on the Manresa 22 retreat team, and was honored to be chosen to co-lead the Manresa 24 team. Ty has also been on two immersion trips, one to Louisville, KY working with refugees and another to Nicaragua where he co-led 17 students to live with families in both urban and rural homestays. He also participated in the Boler Honduras Project this year. Ty is a lector at St. Francis Chapel and has attended many Festival of Praise events. He also participated in the 8-day silent retreat this past winter break. Ty also sang at summer masses during orientations.

Academic Achievement

Ty is a 3 year member of Order of Omega, an Academic Honor Society for Greeks. He also received the Fiftieth Anniversary Scholarship, a scholarship for seniors in the Boler School of Business who have demonstrated academic achievement, leadership, and provided service to the community. Ty presented at a conference in Michigan about We the People and will participate in Celebration of Scholarship. Ty was also an Honors Program student his freshmen and sophomore year. In addition, Ty has been on the professional marketing team at GE Lighting's global headquarters since 2012.

Service to the University and Civic Community

Ty has done many one-time service projects, such as Labre and Danie's Day, a campus event co-sponsored by his fraternity. Ty also serves as the 4th/5th grade student coordinator for the We the People program, a weekly service commitment that he has been involved with for the past two years. Ty is also a CSSA student liaison and does weekly drives for the office. This past year Ty was the inaugural recipient of the CSSA Student Staff Award. For the past two years Ty has been a leader for Jesuit Day of Service. Ty also assists the Center for Service and Social Action with pre-service workshops.
