March 20-24, 2006

Welcome Letter from Dr. Beadle

Welcome to JCU's fifth annual Celebration of Scholarship! During this week, the campus community shares in the scholarly work of teaching, discovery, integration, application and communication. These five elements are the foundation of the life of the mind as defined by Ernest Boyer in "Scholarship Reconsidered."

This year we continue with the theme of Fr. Niehoff's presidential inauguration, "Engaging the World." Student-faculty panels include discussions of Cuba and the Global Community, Latin American Studies and Geisha. Many of our faculty papers also discuss international research work including China, Europe and South America.

The Mitsui Lecture on Wednesday evening is "Japan's Global Pop Culture Entertainment Business" and the opening lecture on Monday, sponsored by the Cardinal Suenens Center (the Annual Margaret F. Grace Lecture) welcomes Archbishop Fitzgerald, President, Pontifical Council for Inter-religious Dialogue. His talk, "Where do I Find Hope?," discusses the Christian Muslim dialogue. Many other presentations are scheduled throughout the week including music and art.

I invite you to join in the scholarship of discovery to better appreciate and applaud faculty and students for their individual and collective professional accomplishments.

Mary E. Beadle, Ph.D.
Dean, The Graduate School
