

2013 ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

This report has been prepared to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1990, the 2008 Higher Education Opportunity Act, and the 2013 Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (Campus SaVE Act). This publication is part of John Carroll University's effort to provide information and services that help maintain a safe and secure environment for its students, faculty, staff and visitors.

This information is compiled and distributed annually by the John Carroll University Police Department (JCUPD). Crimes and student conduct referrals reported to the following offices, agencies and individuals are included in the annual crime report:

- JCUPD
- University Heights Police (university owned properties)
- Shaker Heights Police (university owned apartments)
- Geauga County Sheriff (Carrollodge & Thornacres)
- Office of the Dean of Students
- Office of Residence Life
- Athletic Coaching Staff
- Advisors of Student Organizations
- Other University officials to whom crimes have been reported

* The information and statistics in this document are from the calendar year 2013

JCUPD

JCUPD operates as a police department under Section 1713.50 of the Ohio Revised Code. JCUPD officers are armed, sworn police officers, certified through the Ohio Peace Officers Training Council and have arrest authority and police powers on the JCU campus. Officers receive over 600 hours of basic police training and additional in-service training annually.

Officers patrol the campus grounds, buildings and parking lots 24 hours a day. JCUPD are first responders to criminal, medical, fire and other emergencies on campus, and coordinate response with other campus and community responders. Additionally; JCUPD officers provide escorts, vehicle assistance, lost and found services, parking enforcement, and support of campus events. Officers also take reports and investigate criminal and University conduct violations. The training, orientation and philosophy of the department is to provide professional services which enhance the safety of the University community.

LOCAL POLICE

The University lies primarily within University Heights, but also has property in Shaker Heights. JCUPD have concurrent jurisdiction for University property within each city, and therefore works closely with both Police departments. JCUPD has a mutual aid agreement with the University Heights Police Department, which describes information-sharing and other cooperative arrangements between the departments.

REPORTING CRIMES AND OTHER EMERGENCIES

Crimes or other emergencies should be reported 24 hours a day to JCUPD at 397-1234. Other options for reporting, or advice/guidance if you are unsure if a crime has occurred are:

- E-mail JCUPD at jcupd@jcu.edu
- Visit the JCUPD office in room 14 of the Rec Plex.
- Call University Heights Police at 216-932-1800, or visit their offices at 2300 Warrensville Center Road.

For any emergency, call the JCUPD dispatcher at the 216-397-1234 number and give the following information:

- Your name.
- Your location.
- The nature of the emergency (person bleeding, not breathing, fire etc.).
- The exact location of the emergency (Student Center, Jardine Room etc.).
- A phone number for the dispatcher to call you back if needed.
- Any other information the dispatcher asks you.
- Don't hang up until the dispatcher indicates you should do so.

By calling 216 -397-1234 instead of 911 directly; JCUPD, JCUEMS and other campus responders can respond to the emergency while the JCUPD dispatcher calls 911. This enables help to be on scene quickly while campus responders meet and take local responders directly to the emergency location thus avoiding delays by local responders. If you do call 911, call the JCUPD dispatcher, give the information above, and tell them that you called 911.

Reported incidents are investigated by JCUPD with the assistance of local, state, or other police agencies as needed. All criminal matters should be reported to JCUPD, even if additional reports are made to residence hall assistants or other personnel.

FACILITY SECURITY

Exterior doors of all residence halls are locked at all times, with at least one door secured by a fob access system. Non-residents are not permitted in residence halls without a resident escort. Each residence hall lobby has a courtesy phone for this purpose. Residents are responsible for the behavior of their guests.

Classroom, library, and recreational facility hours are posted each semester. Employees working after normal hours or on weekends should notify JCUPD of their location and approximate time they will be in the building. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to call JCUPD immediately if suspicious persons or activities are noticed in campus buildings or anywhere on campus.

Staffs from Campus Facilities, JCUPD and Residence Life continually check campus buildings/facilities to ensure doors, windows, locks, access systems, lighting and other safety and security equipment and infrastructure are in good repair and working properly.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING

Individuals may report crimes anonymously to the JCUPD tip line by calling 216-397-1515. If an individual wishes to report a crime to a university official in confidence, every effort will be made to keep the information confidential. However, if the university official believes that there is imminent risk of harm to self or others; JCUPD will be notified to investigate and take appropriate action. If the University Official believes that a felony crime has been committed, this must be reported to JCUPD to investigate.

If an individual reports a crime or incident to someone possessing legal privilege, that person must maintain confidentiality unless he/she determines that there is imminent risk of harm to self or others. These persons possessing legal privilege include:

- Licensed counselors, psychologists & psychiatrists in the Campus Counseling Center or off-campus agencies/offices.
- Physicians in Campus Health Service or in a hospital, clinic or doctor's office.
- Members of the Clergy who are ordained and acting in the capacity of a pastoral counselor.
- Licensed attorneys

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION POLICY

TIMELY WARNING POLICY

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1990 requires universities and colleges to notify the campus of crimes or situations that may present an ongoing threat to persons or property.

A "Security Alert" (Timely Warning) will be issued when JCUPD is made aware of a crime that has occurred on or near campus that may pose a threat to the safety of the campus community. Examples include, but are not limited to: homicide, sexual assault, assault or robbery.

In addition to a security alert, a "Security Advisory" may be issued when a pattern of property theft has been identified on campus. Examples include but are not limited to: thefts from buildings or vehicles.

JCUPD works closely with the University Heights Police and other neighboring police agencies, sharing information regarding crimes and crime trends.

The JCUPD Chief, or designee, will consult with the Vice President for Student Affairs to make a determination on sending a timely warning/alert or advisory once information from police reports and/or other sources is verified. Other factors considered include: the immediate and long term safety of the campus community, privacy interests of persons involved and impact on police and university investigations. Names and other personal identifiers will not be used in the alerts or advisories.

Information provided in the alert or advisory will be: a description of the crime, the date(s), time(s) and location(s) as well as suspect(s) description if known. Other relevant information may be included that will help protect and inform, but will not hinder investigation of the crime. Prevention strategies and JCUPD contact information will also be provided. Alerts and advisories will be sent via e-mail, other appropriate media, and posted on the JCUPD web site:

<http://sites.jcu.edu/css/>

DAILY CRIME LOGS

A log, summarizing crimes reported to JCUPD, is posted at: <http://sites.jcu.edu/css/pages/crime-log/> . Hard copies are kept in the JCUPD office, RecPlex room 14. The log is updated within 48 hours of a report. Items included on the crime log are:

1. The nature of the crime
2. The date and time the incident occurred
3. The location of the crime
4. The disposition of the complaint, if known.

CRIME PREVENTION

The JCUPD offer programs for faculty, staff and students in crime prevention and awareness, personal safety, emergency procedures and response and other related topics. Programs focused on by-stander intervention, active shooter response and self-defense/personal safety is offered. More crime prevention information can be found at the JCUPD website: <http://sites.jcu.edu/css/pages/crime-prevention/>

Courtesy telephones are located in the lobbies or corridors of buildings. Assistance from JCUPD can be summoned from these locations. These are campus telephones only: University Heights Police or Fire Departments cannot be reached from these telephones. Campus escorts are available 24 hours from JCUPD at 216-397-1234.

JCUPD and Facilities routinely survey the campus for proper lighting and maintenance of facilities.

For students - Staying safe on campus

- Control - Being aware and being in control of yourself and your surroundings is the best way to keep safe. If you are intoxicated, you are less in control of yourself and less aware of your surroundings.
- Be a friend – don't let friends get into unsafe situations. Worry less about someone getting in trouble and focus on your friend's safety, health and welfare.
- Your home - Be aware of "tailgaters". Don't let anyone you don't know follow you into your building. If they are visiting someone, direct them to a campus phone to call the resident.
- Your stuff - Lock your room even if you're leaving for just a minute. It only takes a "minute" for a thief to help himself to your stuff. Inside your room, keep valuables and easy-to-carry items out of sight and secured.

For students - Staying safe off campus

- No worries - Let someone know where you are going and when you expect to be back. This lets your friends, roommates and parents know where you are and if they should worry if they can't get in touch with you.
- Think ahead – If you use public transportation; know the schedules and routes so you don't get stuck or lost.
- On your feet – When walking, go where you know and avoid unfamiliar areas, shortcuts and poorly lit areas. Pay attention to your surroundings; don't be distracted by I-pods, cell phones etc. and walk with a purpose
- Don't advertise - Avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Leave valuables, such as expensive jewelry at home.

Trust your gut* - Always trust your instincts, if something or someone seems suspicious, or just doesn't feel right; get away from the situation to a safe place.

HATE CRIMES

2011 – No hate crimes reported	2012 – No hate crimes reported	2013 – No hate crimes reported

JCU must report the above listed crimes, as well as larceny/theft, simple assault, intimidation, and vandalism (see definitions below) that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias.

Bias types include: race, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity/national origin and disability.

Larceny: The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another.

Vandalism: To willfully or maliciously destroy, injure, disfigure, or deface any public or private property, real or personal, without the consent of the owner or person having custody or control by cutting, tearing, breaking, marking, painting, drawing, covering with filth, or any other such means as may be specified by local law.

Intimidation: To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.

Simple Assault: An unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration or loss of consciousness

GEOGRAPHY DESCRIPTIONS

On Campus - Any building or property owned or controlled by JCU within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by JCU in direct support of, or in a manner related to, JCU's educational purposes, including residence halls; and any building or property within or reasonably contiguous to the campus, owned by JCU, but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes.

Residential Facilities – A subset of the on-campus category includes residential facilities for students located on campus.

Non-Campus Building or Property - Any building/property owned/controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by JCU; or any building/property owned/controlled by JCU that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, JCU's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of JCU.

Public Property - All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

CRIME STATISTIC DEFINITIONS

Criminal Homicide Offenses

-Murder and Nonnegligent Manslaughter: The willful (nonnegligent) killing of one human being by another

-Negligent Manslaughter: The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Sex Offenses

Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

-Forcible Rape: The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

-Forcible Sodomy: Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

- Sexual Assault With An Object: The use of an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

-Forcible Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

-Incest: Nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

-Statutory Rape: Nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. For reporting purposes this definition includes: unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or felony; breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny; housebreaking; safecracking; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned.

Motor Vehicle Theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

CRIME STATISTIC DEFINITIONS (con't)

Dating Violence: Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; by a person who is or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

Weapon Law Violations: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons.

Drug Law Violations: The violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. The unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use, possession, transportation, or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance. Arrests for violations of state and local laws, specifically those relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs.

Liquor Law Violations: The violation of state or local laws/ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, or use of alcoholic beverages, not including driving under the influence and drunkenness.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY

Including issues related to relationship violence, sexual assault, sexual misconduct, and stalking.

A. Policy

John Carroll University seeks to provide a community for students that promote personal growth and development. The University asserts that respect for the rights and dignity of all people must be protected. This goal is an integral part of all aspects of University life, rooted in our Jesuit Catholic identity, and is essential to our learning environment and academic community.

John Carroll University is committed to providing a learning environment free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. Interpersonal violence is a serious issue on college campuses and is not tolerated at John Carroll. Interpersonal violence includes all forms of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Higher Education Amendment of 1972, including gender discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, gender-based stalking and relationship abuse.

It is the policy of John Carroll University, consistent with the aforementioned beliefs and values, that any interpersonal violence offenses (Relationship Violence, Stalking, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Non-Consensual Sexual Contact, and Sexual Exploitation) are prohibited and will not be tolerated. Thus, the University reserves the right to pursue disciplinary action for interpersonal violence offenses against students without regard to prosecution by criminal justice authorities. The Interpersonal Violence Policy covers violations committed by John Carroll University students.

All students should be aware of the consequences for interpersonal violence offenses. The University urges a person who believes an interpersonal violence offense has been committed against him/her to seek assistance from any of the available on-campus or off-campus resources.

Relationship Violence, Stalking, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Non-Consensual Sexual Contact, and/or Sexual Exploitation can be committed by a man, woman, or group against a person or persons of the same or opposite sex. These offenses can be committed by strangers, current or former partners, friends, and acquaintances.

B. Definitions

Relationship Violence is behavior used to establish power and control over another individual using fear, intimidation, violence and/or threat of violence. These behaviors can include, but are not limited to, physical, verbal, emotional, financial or sexual abuse. Examples of abuse may include hitting, punching, slapping, throwing objects, biting, yelling, name-calling, belittling, threatening violence, stealing money, destroying possessions, isolating, or committing sexual violence. Relationship violence can occur between casual or intimate partners of the same or opposite sex, former partners, roommates, or family members.

Stalking is a pattern of two or more incidents of unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or other conduct directed at a specific person that would cause reasonable persons to fear harm to their physical health, mental or emotional health, safety, friends, family or property. Stalking may include, but is not limited to, telephone calls, text messaging, social networking, instant messaging, monitoring behavior, being in physical proximity to the person, or taking pictures.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

Sexual Harassment means any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, offensive references to gender or sexual orientation or other conduct of a sexual nature when:

1. Toleration of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, professional or student status; or
2. Toleration of or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions; or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, educational experience, or living environment, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work, educational, or living environment.
4. Sexual harassment can be verbal, written, physical or pictorial in nature.

Sexual Assault is engaging in, or attempting to engage in, oral, vaginal, or anal penetration through any means (i.e., penis, tongue, finger, foreign object, etc.) without the consent of the other person (see University Consent Standard below).

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact includes any touching of any sexual body parts i.e., breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth, etc.) or the touching of another with these body parts without consent. It also includes disrobing or exposure of another or to another without consent.

Sexual Exploitation occurs when one engages in activity of a sexual nature which involves another person, other than Sexual Assault and Non-Consensual Sexual Contact, without the other person's consent. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to the following: the non-consensual filming, photographing or otherwise recording and/or transmission of sexual activity or nudity; voyeurism or complicity in voyeurism; the knowing transmission of a sexually transmitted infection; and inducing incapacitation with intent to take sexual advantage of another person.

University Consent Standard

1. Consent is freely given using mutually understandable words or actions that indicate a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. Consent is mutually understandable when a reasonable person would consider the words and/or actions of the parties to have reached an agreement to engage in the particular sexual activity. In the absence of mutually understandable affirmative words or actions, it becomes the responsibility of the initiator (the person who wants to engage in a specific sexual activity) to obtain affirmative consent from the other partner.
2. Consent once given, may be withdrawn. If one partner initially offers words or actions that indicate consent, that partner may withdraw consent by indicating with word or action that consent has been discontinued.
3. Consent for one sexual activity does not indicate consent for other forms of sexual activity. Similarly, past sexual consent does not imply future consent.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

Capacity for Consent

1. Incapacitation is defined as being in a state in which a person sufficiently lacks the cognitive ability to realize that the situation is sexual, or cannot appreciate (rationally and reasonably) the nature and/or extent of that situation.
2. Consent can only be given by those with capacity to consent. Minors younger than 16 do not have the capacity to consent to sexual activity. For adults, capacity to consent is on a case by case basis. Mentally disabled persons and physically incapacitated persons may not have the capacity to give consent. One may be incapacitated temporarily as a result of mental illness, unconsciousness, or as a result of alcohol or other drug consumption.
3. One may not engage in sexual activity with another person when one knows or has reasonable cause to believe that person to be incapacitated due to alcohol or other drug consumption or other reasons. Taken in context, some indicators of possible incapacitation may include, but are not limited to the following: vomiting, slurred speech, decreased motor coordination, unconsciousness, erratic or extreme behavior, knowledge of person's consumption, or bloodshot eyes.

Coercion

Consent which is obtained through the use of fraud or force, whether by physical force, threats, intimidation or coercion is invalid.

C. Applicability

This policy applies to all John Carroll University students. All students are encouraged to report alleged interpersonal violence offenses as soon as possible. Interpersonal violence offenses may be reported whether they occurred on campus, at a University sponsored event, or off campus including study abroad, internships, and immersion experiences.

D. Confidentiality and Reporting

To the extent possible, the University will maintain the confidentiality of all parties involved in alleged interpersonal violence offenses. Confidentiality, however, cannot be guaranteed. Under Ohio law, persons who know that a felony has been committed must report that information to law enforcement. For that reason, all University employees (excluding licensed professionals from the University Counseling Center and pastoral counselors [i.e. priests acting as pastoral counselors]) must comply with this policy. Therefore, employees must contact John Carroll Police Department or the University Heights Police Department when an allegation of an interpersonal violence offense has been made.

Students who experience interpersonal violence can meet with the Program Coordinator for the Violence Prevention and Action Center to discuss a situation confidentially, which means that the University will not pursue an investigation on the basis of confidential information shared with the VPAC coordinator if the student does not wish to do so. The VPAC coordinator is not a legally privileged confidant, so they are still required to report basic non-identifying information to law enforcement and make periodic non-identifying summaries of the crimes occurring on campus to the Title IX coordinator.

E. Immunity Provision

Individuals (recipients of the behavior and/or those assisting recipients) who report incidents of interpersonal violence which occur while he/she is engaged in underage drinking or illicit drug use will not be held responsible for violating the university alcohol and/or drug policy.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

F. Retaliation

The University strictly prohibits retaliation by, for, or against any participant (complainant, recipient of the behavior, the respondent, or witnesses) for making a good faith report of any conduct, act, or practice believed to be interpersonal violence, for resisting such behavior, for participating in an investigation of the allegation, and/or for participating in the conduct process. Prohibited behavior includes any form of intimidation, threats, or harassment by the individual or friends, family, or other persons acting in support of or on behalf of that individual. Retaliation can be verbal, written, graphic, electronic, or physical. Acts of retaliation are by themselves, cause for disciplinary action. Concerns of retaliation can be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, JCUPD, the VPAC Coordinator, or the Dean of Students.

G. Consequences

Any student found responsible for a violation of the Interpersonal Violence Policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, expulsion. Specific conduct procedures may be found here <http://sites.jcu.edu/deanofstudents/pages/community-standards/interpersonal-violence-policy>. Even if John Carroll University members are not criminally prosecuted, the University can pursue disciplinary action.

In accordance with the Student Code, the University reserves the right to impose an interim suspension on any student accused of an interpersonal violence offense pending the outcome of an investigation and/or conduct hearing. The University reserves the right to issue a no contact directive to the students involved pending the investigation and outcome of a conduct hearing.

PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE

A. Procedures

John Carroll University encourages those who have experienced interpersonal violence to report the incident promptly, to seek all available assistance, and to pursue university discipline proceedings and criminal prosecution of the offender. All university employees (including Resident Assistants, staff members, etc.) excluding licensed professionals from the University Counseling Center and pastoral counselors (i.e. priests acting as pastoral counselors), must report interpersonal violence offenses to law enforcement authorities, which can include JCUPD and/or the University Heights Police. It is the practice of JCUPD to report such offenses to the University Heights Police Department or the appropriate jurisdiction.

Because licensed professionals from the University Counseling Center and pastoral counselors are not required to disclose knowledge of crimes reported to them except when necessary to prevent harm, those who wish to discuss a situation in complete confidence should notify only the University Counseling Center or a pastoral counselor. Counseling services and pastoral care are available at any time for any persons affected by an act of interpersonal violence.

Students who experience interpersonal violence can meet with the Program Coordinator for the Violence Prevention and Action Center to discuss a situation confidentially, which means that the University will not pursue an investigation on the basis of confidential information shared with the VPAC coordinator if the student does not wish to do so. The VPAC coordinator is not a legally privileged confidant, so they are still required to report basic non-identifying information to law enforcement and make periodic non-identifying summaries of the crimes occurring on campus to the Title IX coordinator.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

1. Immediate Action

- a. Tell a trusted person about the act of interpersonal violence.
- b. Preserve any evidence of the act. Depending on the type of interpersonal violence offense, evidence may include, but is not limited to, text messages, voice mail messages, bodily fluids, etc. Physical evidence such as clothing, bed sheets, etc. should be placed in a secure area.
- c. Contact the John Carroll Police at 216- 397-1234 and/or the University Heights Police at 216-932-1800 and/or the JCU 24-hour Crisis Hotline at 216-397-CALL. JCUPD can provide immediate referral information, access to the university counselor on-call, investigative assistance, and assistance notifying local law enforcement agencies. The JCU 24-hour hotline can provide immediate support and crisis intervention, educate recipients of the behavior and/or supportive others about reporting options and medical care, and coordinate an in-person advocacy response when appropriate.
- d. Seek immediate medical attention at a SANE (Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner) Unit. If possible, do not bathe, urinate, douche, brush teeth, or consume liquids or food before seeking medical attention. A Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner is a registered nurse with expertise in forensic evidence collection and medical care following trauma, such as sexual assault or relationship violence. The five 24-hour SANE Units in Cuyahoga County are located at Hillcrest Hospital, Fairview Hospital, MetroHealth Hospital, University Hospitals, and Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital. Hillcrest Hospital is the closest in proximity to John Carroll University.

At the hospital, an advocate may be offered from the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center. Advocates can provide support and information about the medical exam, reporting options, and victim rights. If an advocate is not offered, the individual can request to have an advocate or other support person present throughout the exam. Individuals under the age of 18 are able to receive medical attention and evidence collection without a parent present. However, the hospital is required to notify parents/guardians and the Department of Child and Family Services of the hospital visit

Hospital personnel are mandated to report felony crimes. However, if the individual is over the age of 18, his/her name does not have to be disclosed. Individuals may choose whether or not to speak to the police at the hospital. Regardless of whether an individual makes a report with law enforcement at the hospital, the option to file charges at a later date still exists. When possible, do not disturb the crime scene before law enforcement completes an investigation.

2. Support Services

a. Counseling: Students who have experienced interpersonal violence and their supportive friends/family members may receive free and confidential counseling at the:

- University Counseling Center (216-397-4283) and/or
- Cleveland Rape Crisis Center (216-619-6192) and/or
- Domestic Violence and Child Advocacy Center (216-391-HELP)

b. Violence Prevention and Action Center (VPAC): VPAC coordinates an immediate and supportive response to incidents of interpersonal violence by providing a range of responses, including crisis intervention, safety planning, transportation, accompaniment to the hospital and/or to speak with law enforcement, resources/information, and referrals. Students can access these services by contacting the VPAC Program Coordinator through the JCU 24-hour Crisis Hotline at 216-397-CALL (2255).

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

c. Reassignments: When the recipient of the behavior and the respondent participates in the same class(es) and/or reside in the same university residence or are in close proximity to one another (i.e. share the same athletic facilities), the Dean of Students will consult with the appropriate individual in making a determination regarding an alternative assignment(s).

B. Reporting Options

The University encourages those who have experienced interpersonal violence to report these incidents to both John Carroll Police Department and local law enforcement. Recipients of the behavior have the right, however, not to provide a statement to either JCUPD or local law enforcement.

Any student who wishes to receive more information on reporting processes, and/or obtain resource/referral information are encouraged to use VPAC. VPAC can also provide the recipient of the behavior with an advocate throughout the entire reporting process. The VPAC Program Coordinator can be reached at (216) 397-2175 or through the JCU 24-hour hotline at (216) 397-CALL (2255).

Filing a report does not necessarily obligate the recipient of the behavior to pursue disciplinary or criminal charges. Although the local police and university officials (including JCUPD) have an obligation to protect the community from those who have engaged in crimes of violence, including relationship violence, stalking, sexual harassment, sexual assault, non-consensual sexual contact, and sexual exploitation, they are also mindful of the needs and desires of the recipient of the behavior when addressing any alleged offenses. There may be instances in which the University and/or law enforcement bodies pursue charges without the cooperation of the recipient of the behavior.

The recipient of the behavior is welcome to have a person of his/her choosing including the Program Coordinator from the Violence Prevention and Action Center with them when meeting with an officer to file a report. Additionally, the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center has a 24-hour Face-to-Face Advocacy program to provide support and information to the recipient of the behavior at the police department (local municipality and/or JCUPD). The recipient of the behavior can access advocacy programs through VPAC's 24-hour hotline at (216) 397-CALL (2255).

1. Filing a report with John Carroll Police Dept. (216-397-1234):

The recipient of the behavior is strongly encouraged to file a report with JCUPD, who will conduct an investigation. It is the general practice of JCUPD to report allegations of interpersonal violence to the University Heights Police Department. Reports are also forwarded to the Dean of Students Office and the Title IX Coordinator upon receipt.

2. Filing a report with the University Heights Police Department (216-932-1800):

Criminal charges may be pursued after filing an initial report with UHPD. John Carroll Police Department and/or an advocate may accompany the recipient of the behavior in filing a report at UHPD. If the recipient of the behavior is interested in counseling services, s/he will be referred to the John Carroll University Counseling Center (216-397-4283), Cleveland Rape Crisis Center (216-619-6192), and/or Domestic Violence and Child Advocacy Center (216-391-HELP).

3. Filing a report with the Title IX Coordinator (216-397-1559):

The recipient of the behavior can meet with the Title IX Coordinator to discuss possible violations of the Interpersonal Violence Policy, which includes relationship violence, stalking, sexual harassment, sexual assault, non-consensual sexual contact, and sexual exploitation.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

C. Student Conduct Procedures

The Student Code of Conduct and Conduct Procedures are contained in the Community Standards Manual which can be found online at <http://sites.jcu.edu/deanofstudents/pages/community-standards/conduct-system>. The procedures include the following: The conduct process shall provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution. Typically, the process will take no longer than 60 days to complete. Investigations will be conducted by JCUPD officers who receive training.

Conduct hearings will be conducted by Student Conduct Administrators/Boards who have received training on relationship violence, stalking, sexual harassment, sexual assault, non-consensual sexual contact, and sexual exploitation. The standard for conduct decision-making is whether it is more likely than not that the respondent student violated the Student Code.

Student Rights: Recipient of the Behavior

A person who reports being the recipient of behavior that violates the Interpersonal Violence Policy or other acts of violence by a John Carroll University student shall have the following rights under the Student Code:

1. The student is entitled to be given an explanation of the conduct system and the charge(s).
2. The student is entitled to freedom from harassment or retaliation by others involved in the situation.
3. The student is entitled to the use of all available internal and external support services in dealing with the aftermath of the incident.
4. The student is entitled to object to a member of a Student Conduct Board for reasons of official or personal conflict of interest.
5. The student is entitled to have an advisor of his/her choosing accompany her/him throughout the conduct process including any initial meeting, conference, the hearing, and post-hearing meeting.
6. The student is entitled to be present throughout the hearing, but not during the deliberations of the Student Conduct Administrator/Board.
7. The student is entitled to view pertinent materials involved in the case.
8. The student is entitled to present pertinent information and the information of witnesses, excluding character witnesses, to substantiate his/her case. This includes proposing questions to be asked of the respondent and/or witnesses.
9. The student is entitled to freedom from having irrelevant personal history discussed or considered during the conduct process. (The Student Conduct Administrator will determine relevance.)
10. The student is entitled to written documentation of the outcome of the conduct hearing.
11. The student is entitled to make a written appeal of the disciplinary decision within five (5) business days of the date of notification of that decision. University disciplinary actions are appealed to the Dean of Students.

INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE POLICY (con't)

Student Rights: The Accused

In the hearing notification letter and again at the beginning of the hearing, the respondent student will be advised that s/he has the rights listed below. Students with any questions about their rights are encouraged to contact the Associate Dean of Students.

1. The student is entitled to be given an explanation of the conduct system and the charge(s).
2. The student is entitled to freedom from harassment or retaliation by others involved in the situation.
3. The student is entitled to the use of all available internal and external support services in dealing with the aftermath of the incident.
4. The student is entitled to object to a member of a Student Conduct Board for reasons of official or personal conflict of interest.
5. The student is entitled to have an advisor of his/her choosing accompany her/him throughout the conduct process including any initial meeting, conference, the hearing, and post-hearing meeting.
6. The student is entitled to be present throughout the hearing, but not during the deliberations of the Student Conduct Administrator/Board.
7. The student is entitled to know all information presented against him/her and to view pertinent materials supporting the case against him/her.
8. The student is entitled to present pertinent information and the information of witnesses, excluding character witnesses, to substantiate his/her case and to respond to the charges against him/her. This includes proposing questions to be asked of the recipient of the behavior and/or witnesses.
9. The student is entitled to freedom from having irrelevant personal history discussed or considered during the conduct process. (The Student Conduct Administrator will determine relevance.)
10. The student is entitled to remain silent (i.e., not to give information against him/herself) but must be informed that the case will be decided on the information presented.
11. The student is entitled to written documentation of the outcome of the conduct hearing.
12. The student is entitled to make a written appeal of the disciplinary decision within five (5) business days of the date of notification of that decision. University disciplinary actions are appealed to the Dean of Students.

The recipient of the behavior and the respondent student shall be informed, in writing, of the following:

1. The outcome of the conduct hearing;
2. The procedures for the appeals process;
3. Any change in the results that occurs prior to the time the results become final;
4. When the results become final.

CAMPUS SEX CRIME PREVENTION ACT

The 2000 Campus Sex Crime Prevention Act requires that certain convicted sex-offenders identify themselves to colleges and universities if they; a) attend classes, b) work on a college or university campus, or c) volunteer on a college or university campus. Colleges and universities are required inform their communities of where sex-offender information can be obtained.

In Cuyahoga County, information on registered sex-offenders is available from Sex-Offender Unit at (216) 443-5567 or by visiting the Sheriff's Office website at <http://sheriff.cuyahogacounty.us/en-US/Sexual-Offender-Unit.aspx>

Ohio information on registered sex offenders is at: <http://www.icrimewatch.net/index.php?AgencyID=55149&disc>

DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICIES

Members of the University community are expected to be aware of and obey federal, state, and municipal laws or ordinances regulating the use, possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or controlled substances. Persons under the age of 21 are not permitted to consume alcohol under any circumstances on University property, or at any university event, regardless of where the event takes place. The University prohibits the illegal use possession, or distribution of illegal drugs or controlled substances or association with gatherings involving such use, possession, or distribution. Those cited for violations of law or ordinances by state, federal, or municipal authorities may face University disciplinary proceedings. The university reserves the right to take disciplinary action against any student for off-campus behavior that violates this policy.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

Any student who resides in on-campus housing has the option to identify an individual that University officials can contact no later than 24 hours after the student has been determined to be missing by University officials.

On-campus resident students may register this contact information at the time they provide emergency contact information for the University housing contract. Providing this information is optional, and the information will be kept confidential and will only be accessible to authorized University officials.

Any student, faculty, staff, administrator or other party who reports an on-campus student missing should be directed to JCUPD. JCUPD will, in conjunction with appropriate outside public safety agencies, investigate the missing person report. If JCUPD determine that an on-campus student has been missing for 24 hours or more, the individual identified by the student as a contact will be called to notify him/her, and gather information for the investigation. If the missing student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated, JCUPD will immediately contact the custodial parent or legal guardian of the student. JCUPD, University officials and appropriate outside agencies will continue to investigate and attempt to locate the missing student.

FIRE SAFETY POLICIES AND STATISTICS

Campus buildings are protected from fire by fire alarm systems in each building, which are monitored on campus by JCUPD dispatchers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Strobes and horns or automated voice commands sound in each building to alert occupants that a fire condition exists. Alarms may be generated manually by pull stations, or automatically by smoke or duct detectors, and sprinklers in some buildings.

Once an alarm is received by JCUPD dispatchers, JCUPD officers are dispatched to the building to determine the exact location and cause of the alarm, as well as assist with building evacuation. During business hours, Facilities Services staff will also respond. The dispatcher will then call the local fire department to report the alarm. The dispatcher will continue to receive updates from the officers on scene and relay that information to responding fire units. JCUPD, facilities staff and local firefighters will work together to determine the cause of the alarm. These responders will take steps to resolve the cause of the alarm, including fighting the fire. Once the building is determined to be safe by the ranking fire department official on scene, occupants will be allowed to re-enter.

Building fire systems are inspected quarterly by facilities staff to ensure that fire detections devices (smoke detectors), fire annunciation devices (strobes/horns/voice commands) are working properly. Fire suppression systems (sprinklers, fume hood suppression systems) are inspected annually by qualified contractors. Fire extinguishers are checked monthly by facilities staff and tested annually by qualified contractors.

Residence Hall Fire Safety Policies

The following policies apply to students living in on-campus residence halls:

A fire safety program is conducted in each building during the fall semester. Additionally, fire drills are conducted in each residence hall each semester. Failing to evacuate the building during an alarm will result in disciplinary action. The University Heights Fire Marshall inspects each residence hall regularly. The Fire Marshall may enter any room without notification to determine if there is a violation of fire safety policies.

All fire alarms should be considered true indications of danger and the building must be evacuated as safely and quickly as possible. While staff will attempt to alert residents to leave, it is incumbent upon each person to take personal responsibility to exit the building. Staff will indicate when people may safely return inside.

Electrical appliances must be in compliance with the housing and fire codes of the City of University Heights. Each appliance must be UL approved. Approved appliances include stereos, computers, televisions, VCRs, DVD players, refrigerators (4.6 cubic feet or smaller), microwaves (1 cubic foot and 700 - 900 watts), blankets, fans, coffee makers, desk lights, hair dryers, and curling irons. Prohibited items include toasters, toaster ovens, hot plates, hot pots, sun lamps, electric skillet and woks, grills (including the George Foreman grill), oil popcorn poppers, space heaters, percolators, air conditioners, halogen bulb lamps, and potpourri burners. Only UL approved, circuit breaker type extension cords and power-strips may be used.

What to do when a fire alarm sounds

- Residents and their guests must evacuate the building immediately.
- Feel the door with the back of your hand to test for heat.
- Cover entire body with clothing, if possible, and carry an extra towel to protect face and hair.
- Close the room windows and leave the drapes/blinds open.
- Close and lock the door.
- Walk quickly and quietly.
- Leave the building by the nearest exit.
- Once outside the building, move away from the entrances, pair up with your roommate, move to the spot designated for your floor and do not block the street or parking lot.

If you cannot leave your room because of heat or smoke:

- Place a towel at the base of the door to prevent smoke from coming into the room.
- Hang a sheet out of the room window to indicate that you are there.
- Call x1234 to give JCUPD your location.

Fire Safety Misconduct

Causing a building to go into alarm falsely can carry grave consequences. Students may panic or may ignore the alarm believing it to be false. This may in turn cause students to become injured, overcome by smoke, or to lose their lives. Therefore, the University takes the actions of tampering with fire alarms, smoke detectors, sprinklers, and fire extinguishers which trigger an alarm very seriously.

The following will be considered as sufficient cause for immediate expulsion from the University:

- Intentionally setting a fire of any nature.

The following will be considered as sufficient cause for immediate suspension from the University:

- Pulling a fire alarm when no danger is present.
- Tampering with smoke detectors or sprinkler systems resulting in triggering the alarm system.

The following will be considered as sufficient cause for immediate removal from the residence halls for a designated period of time:

- Misuse of fire extinguishers.
- Setting off fire crackers or similar incendiary devices.
- Tampering with the protective hood on fire alarm pull stations.
- Leaving candles lit and unattended.
- Removing batteries from a room smoke detector.
- Vandalizing exit signs.

CAMPUS EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION POLICIES

General Emergency Preparedness

Emergencies and disasters are unpredictable and often strike without warning. It is essential that all John Carroll faculty, staff, and students respond quickly and appropriately to emergency situations in order to reduce the risk of injury and property damage.

EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBERS

John Carroll JCUPD	216-397-1234
John Carroll EMS	216-397-1234
John Carroll Facilities	216-397-4314
University Heights Fire Department and EMS	911 or 216-321-2446
University Heights Police	911 or 216- 932-1800

Note: The 9-1-1 emergency system can be accessed from office and residence hall phones. If you do call 9-1-1 for an emergency, please also call John Carroll police at extension 1234 immediately afterward. This will allow our police officers to meet, coordinate with, and direct emergency officials to the incident. If you cannot reach John Carroll police for some reason, call 9-1-1.

The best way to successfully navigate an emergency is to plan, prepare, and rehearse your response. If you are mindful, not fearful, you will be better able to make critical decisions during an emergency. Those who have been trained and/or planned, prepared, and rehearsed (mentally and physically) stand a much better chance of being able to react and respond in a manner that will keep them and others safe during an emergency situation.

Remember, those in immediate danger are the real First Responders.

Courses of Action During an Emergency Situation

Trained/Prepared	Untrained/Unprepared
Startle and fear	Startle and fear
Feel anxious	Panic
Recall what they have learned	Fall into disbelief
Prepare to act as rehearsed	Lost in denial
Commit to action	Descend into helplessness

Building Evacuation

Different emergencies require different evacuation strategies. . When evacuation is not indicated for the emergencies in this plan or by obvious circumstances, you should stay where you are until given direction by emergency personnel. The decision to evacuate is based on factors that give you the best chance of remaining safe and avoid putting you in a more harmful situation.

When to Evacuate*

1. Anytime you hear the fire alarm in your building.
2. If you smell smoke or know an actual fire is burning.
3. When instructed to do so by the CSS dispatcher, CSS officers or police, fire/EMS personnel.

* Certain circumstances may prevent safe evacuation such as an injury, disability or physical obstruction. If this is the case, move away from the danger and find shelter in place in an area with a window to allow rescue. Try to notify rescuers of your location, i.e. telephone, e-mail, text message, hanging a towel or other object out of a window.

When not to Evacuate (Shelter in Place) **

1. When a tornado warning is sounded (find appropriate shelter within your building).
2. During a hostile intruder situation.
3. During a hostage/barricade situation.
4. During a power failure.
5. When instructed not to evacuate by CSS dispatcher, CSS officers or police, fire/EMS personnel.

 Certain circumstances may require evacuation when you otherwise would not evacuate. If you personally encounter a hostile intruder or hostage/barricade situation and you can readily flee the building (evacuate) for your personal safety, flee the building.

What to Do if You Must Evacuate

1. Listen carefully to instructions of emergency personnel.
2. Close the door as you leave and do not try to gather materials on the way out, leave quickly.
3. Keep talking to a minimum.
4. Exit via stairwells, not elevators.
5. Alert emergency personnel of any disabled or injured persons who need assistance.

Area Evacuation

Certain emergencies may affect a specific building or area of campus. In this case, persons in those buildings/areas will be evacuated to a predetermined site nearby. Depending on circumstances, emergency personnel may need to direct you to a secondary evacuation site. The evacuation shelter sites are listed below.

Building/Area	Primary Evacuation Shelter	Secondary Evacuation Shelter
All Residence Halls, courtyards/green space	RecPlex (DeCarlo Varsity Center & Intramural Gym)	Administration Building (Kulas Auditorium & hallways)
Shula Stadium & Athletic fields East of Belvoir Blvd.	RecPlex (DeCarlo Varsity Center & intramural Gym)	Administration Building (Kulas Auditorium and hallways)
Rodman Hall	Administration Building (Kulas Auditorium and hallways)	RecPlex (DeCarlo Varsity Center & intramural Gym)
Administration Building (includes O'Malley Center and Boler School)	Dolan Science Center (Muldoon Atrium & O'Connell Reading rm.)	RecPlex (DeCarlo Varsity Center & Intramural Gym)
Grasselli Library/ Breen Learning Center	Dolan Science Center (Muldoon Atrium & O'Connell Reading rm.)	Administration Building (Kulas Auditorium and hallways)
Dolan Science Center	Administration Building (Kulas Auditorium and hallways)	RecPlex (DeCarlo Varsity Center & Intramural Gym)
Green Road Annex	Heinens (await transport to RecPlex)	As instructed by emergency personnel

Campus Evacuation

An emergency that dictates the evacuation of the entire University might be handled in conjunction with the emergency procedures of the City of University Heights and surrounding communities. In the unlikely event that a campus evacuation is necessary, you will be directed to leave the University in the following manner.

If You Drive to Campus

1. Take your normal route to your vehicle.
2. Leave the campus area via these suggested routes: Warrenville Center Road, Belvoir Road, Green Road, Fairmont Boulevard, Cedar Road, Mayfield Road.

Note: Egress to Carroll Blvd., Miramar Blvd. and E. Washington Street may be available thru JCU's emergency gates.

If the City of Cleveland is also evacuating, all major Cleveland streets, such as Euclid Avenue, Chester, and Carnegie, will be eastbound only from downtown. Police may direct traffic in other ways dependant on circumstances.

If You Take Public Transportation or Reside On Campus

1. Go to the nearest RTA station to take a bus or rapid away from the area. RTA/mass transit will be on a rush hour status unless circumstances prohibit mass transit operations.
2. If mass transit is not available, you will be directed to the Intramural Gym in the RecPlex fro further instructions.

Emergency Communications

Timely and accurate communication with the campus community during an emergency is essential for proper response and mitigation of the emergency. Depending on the nature of the emergency, the campus will be alerted through the use of audible alarms, public broadcast systems, campus phone and voice mail, e-mail, and text messaging systems.

Audible Alarms

In the event of an emergency that would require the evacuation of a building, the building's fire alarm may be activated. For a campus-wide evacuation, all building fire alarm systems may be activated simultaneously. John Carroll police or other first responders will direct you to campus evacuation shelters or other sites as necessary.

Public Broadcast Systems

In emergency situations when communication must be made to a group of people or those who are outside, a public broadcast system may be used. This may be done through building public address systems, emergency vehicle speakers, or by University officials with bullhorns.

Campus Phone and Voicemail Systems

In some emergencies you may be notified by the campus phone or a campus-wide voice mail. You may also be notified by phone if you are part of an administrative department phone tree.

E-Mail System and Website

In some emergencies you may be notified by a campus-wide e-mail. Additionally, there may be instructions, status reports or other information posted on the John Carroll website.

JCUAlert

In emergency situations that pose an imminent risk to the University community, you can receive a text message alert if you register with JCUAlert. JCUAlert is the University's text messaging system that will instantly and simultaneously distribute both an e-mail and text message to registered users. The text message can be sent to cell phones, Blackberries, wireless PDAs, smart phones and satellite phones, and pagers. To register for this service, go to <http://sites.jcu.edu/emergency/sample-page/jcu-alert/>
