Health Insurance

Exchange students should submit a copy of medical insurance (in English) that is valid in Korea. Insurance must cover the entire period of stay in Korea and must state the coverage dates.

Korean Language Course

Exchange students can take the Korean language courses at the Korean Language Education Center (KLEC) in Sogang University. Exchange students can take the Korean language course free of charge as the fees are covered by our office as a scholarship; students are responsible for other fees for textbook and registration.

Textbook: about USD 45, Registration fee: about USD 60

However, there is a deposit payment –KRW 300,000- (which will be returned when students meet the minimum requirements – 80% of attendance with passing grade of 70%) that all students need to pay in order to register for the Korean language course. The payment instruction will be announced in the pre-departure guidebook.

- Intensive course: Mon-Fri (200 hours), 12 credits
- Evening course: 60 hours, 3 credits

Only students majoring in Korean Language or Korean Studies will be allowed to register for the intensive program.

Immigration

Exchange students must apply for a relevant visa at an overseas Korean Embassy or Consulate to study in Korea. In order to apply for a valid visa, students must submit the required documents to the embassy. Since visa issuance process may take a considerable time, students are requested to apply for visa as soon as they get acceptance from Sogang University.

- Application Process: Receive confirmation of enrollment from Sogang University (Letter of Acceptance and Certificate of Admission) → Apply for visa at Korean Embassy or Consulate
