Ashland University's Counseling Center provides internship and practicum opportunities for master's level students from local universities. The emphasis in this program is on developing the student's therapeutic skills and familiarizing them with a university counseling setting. The University Counseling Center provides free, confidential, short-term counseling, to students currently enrolled at AU.

We also offer consultation services and outreach services to the wider campus community. Interns and practicum students are expected to spend a minimum of 20 hours per week at the Counseling Center and are expected to conduct intakes, provide individual counseling, participate in the planning and facilitation of outreach programs, attend group trainings, and receive individual supervision.

It will be the responsibility of the practicum or intern student to run the alcohol intervention program BASICS. Training will be provided. You must be enrolled in a Counseling Master's Program and needing to complete a year of internship, be willing to work a minimum of 20 hours and maintain own case files, and able to multitask and be flexible.
