

Are you in need of courses for licensure renewal? Are you thinking about adding a Reading Endorsement to your license? This course may be just what you need!

John Carroll University's Department of Education and School Psychology is pleased to announce

ELA 21: Curricular Integration of the New Literacies

This course explores the various facets of new literacies and examines traditional literacy practices through modern lenses.

Modern literacy is vital for preparing students for careers and higher education in the 21st century world. Today digital, media and global literacies are the new literacies—the rightnow proficiencies. Teachers who understand modern literacy are key! The need to teach and learn them cannot wait.

This 3-hour graduate course will be held at the Holden University Center, Spring 2017 Semester on Tuesday evenings, 6 to 8:40 pm. Tuition: 1/3 off regular graduate credit. This course may be substituted for ED 571: Integrated Language Arts in the Reading Endorsement Program at John Carroll University.

For more information about the course or JCU's Reading Endorsement Program, contact Vivienne Porter at vporter@JCU.edu or 216-397-4902.
