

COMPONENTS OF THE COMPREHENSIVE LITERACY FRAMEWORK

Oral communication is the foundation for the development of literacy. Oral language skills are at the heart of all the strategies that make up this framework.

Reading

- Read Aloud
- Modeled/Shared Reading
- Guided Reading
- Independent Reading
- Literature Study
- Reading in the Content Areas

Writing

- Modeled/Shared Writing
- Guided Writing
- Independent Writing
- Writing in the Content Areas

Language and Word Study

- Phonemic Awareness
- Phonics
- Letter/Word Concepts
- Vocabulary
- Grammar

Multiple assessment strategies are essential in order to achieve high levels of performance in each aspect of the Comprehensive Literacy Framework.