1 LABYRINTH ON RODMAN TERRACE

On the patio of Rodman Hall facing the Quad is a replica of the 11-circuit labyrinth at Notre Dame Cathedral at Chartres in France. There are as many ways to walk the labyrinth as there are people. You may walk it in different ways at different times. It could be for fun, for peace, for healing, or for calmness before a big final.

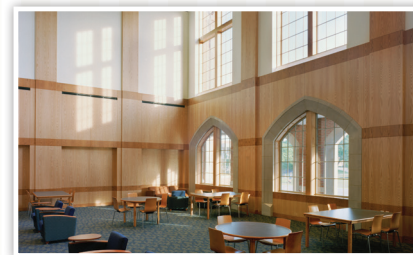

2 SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

Housed in the lobby of The Grasselli Library and Breen Learning Center, the first known handwritten and illuminated Bible in more than 500 years was a gift to John Carroll from Saint John's University. The gift was made possible through a donation by Target in honor of retired Target Executive Vice President John Pellegrine '58.

3 THE O'CONNELL READING ROOM

Located in the center of the Dolan Center for Science and Technology, the O'Connell Reading Room provides a quiet, distraction-free place while taking in the beautiful view of the Hamlin Quad and Grasselli Tower through the two-story wall of windows.

4 BEAUDRY SHRINE WITH STATUE OF MARY

Located between Bernet Hall and the Boler School on Dauby Plaza, the Beaudry Shrine was dedicated in memory of Bob Beaudry '50. The statue was made possible by contributions from Bob's family and friends. The Class of 1956 Memorial Fountain sits in front of the shrine.

5 PACELLI LION

One of JCU's fun traditions is painting the Pacelli Lion. Fraternities, sororities, and various student organizations will wake up in the middle of the night to decorate the sandstone cat. It's always fun and interesting to see the many "faces" of the lion each morning!

6 THE DON SHULA MEMORABILIA ROOM

Featuring photographs and artifacts donated by the family, the Don Shula Memorabilia Room celebrates the accomplishments of the 'winningest' coach in NFL history, Don Shula, from the JCU Class of 1951. The room is on the concourse level of Don Shula Stadium.

7 THE CUBBY AND INN-BETWEEN

Located on the lower level of the D.J. Lombardo Student Center, The Cubby and Inn-Between are common spots for students to grab some late-night meals or munchies. You will also see many small group meetings or study sessions taking place here throughout the school year.

8 THE STATUE OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

Located outside Saint Francis Chapel, the Statue of Saint Ignatius of Loyola is a common meeting place on campus and gives members of our community an opportunity to recall our Jesuit heritage and reflect on our mission.
