

Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Cultures

---

Meet Your Major
October 9, 2013

---

Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Cultures

---

Faculty

---

Language Offerings

---

- Ancient Greek
- Arabic
- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Latin
- Russian
- Slovak
- Spanish

Courses in Literature and Culture (Taught in English)

---

Spring 2014 Offerings

- CL 220: Classical Mythology (II, L)
- CL 340: The Archaeology of Greece (II, S) *
- CL 399: Barbarians: Constructing Self and Other in the Ancient World
- IC 122A: Japanese Swordsmanship: Kendo
- IC 122B: Japanese Calligraphy
- IC 203: Global Fairy Tales, Folktales, Fables, & Short Fiction
- IC 231: Short Fiction since 1900: Russian, Slovak, Czech (II, L, S)
- IC 361: Italian Humanism and Renaissance (II, L, D, S) *
- IC 399: Special Topics: China Through Film (II, D, R)

* These courses include a field trip abroad component during Spring Break 2014

Majors and Minors in Languages and Cultures

---

Majors

Classics

French

Spanish

Minors

French

German

Spanish

Greek

Latin

Classical Studies

Interdisciplinary Majors

---

East Asian Studies

Four courses (12 credits) in Chinese or Japanese language.

Eight more East Asia courses (24 credits) in at least three departments or disciplines, including a capstone project/course during senior year.

Interdisciplinary Majors

---

International Business with Language and Culture

Business core, courses on problem solving and innovation in international context, 6 courses of foreign languages including a business language course, 2 IC courses in target culture, spring study abroad and internships.

Interdisciplinary Minors and Concentrations

---

- East Asian Studies
- International Business
- International Economics and Modern Languages
- International Studies
- Italian Studies
- Latin American and Latino Studies
- Modern European Studies

Extra-Curricular Opportunities

- Japan Society
- Spanish Club
- Italian Club
- French Club
- R.爱.C.E (Realizing Your Love for Cultures of the East)
- Honor Societies in Classics, French,
and Spanish

Classics Club's float, 2006 Homecoming parade

5-Year Programs

---

Major Scholarships

Career Opportunities

---

- ‡ International Business
- ‡ Journalism
- ‡ Medicine
- ‡ International Law
- ‡ Tourism
- ‡ Telecommunications
- ‡ Education
- ‡ Non-Profit Organizations

Success Stories

---

Steve Borowy

B.S., JCU 2012 (Major: IBLC)

Studied one semester at Università Cattolica in Milan, Italy, followed by an internship in Milan area.

Current Employment: Territory Sales Representative, Kichler Lighting.

Success Stories

---

William Cook

B.A., JCU 2013 (Majors:
Political Science, French)

Studied at the University of Paris during sophomore year.

Works in the Business Development team of Transfer Express, LLC, company
expanding in Canada.

Success Stories

Alejandro Velez-Lopez

B.A., JCU 2013 (Majors: Spanish, Sociology)

One year of service in Miami graduate studies at The New School, located in New York City. I am in the masters International Affairs program with a concentration on Governance and Rights

Stories from Study Abroad

---

Japan
Italy

Japan: Brionna Thomas

Italy: Casey Key (IBLC)

Italy: Kaitlyn Cannone

---

Upcoming Events

---

- Spanish Film Festival, Oct. 10, AD226, 6:00-9:00pm
- “Giuseppe Verdi at 200: Reflections on his Music, Life, and Times,” Oct. 24, Dolan Auditorium, 7:00pm
- East Asian Festival, Oct. 31, Lombardo Center, 3:00-6:30pm
- “Cafè des Amis,” Conversations in French, Fridays, Room OC112, 2:30-3:30
- “La Hora del Cafè,” Conversations in Spanish, Room OC112, 3:30-4:30

Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Cultures

---

Please join us in OC112

Reception with international food and drink

