Policy Statement

The Purchasing and Accounts Payable department provides valuable purchasing, travel, and property management services to the Office of Sponsored Research, John Carroll University faculty, staff, and research sponsors.

Principal investigators who direct sponsored programs will need to obtain equipment, supplies, parts and services from university and commercial sources to conduct their projects. All purchases must be conducted in a manner that will provide open and free competition to the maximum extent practical and consistent with applicable federal cost principles. Departmental procedures reflect the ethical standards of the Office of Sponsored Research and the university. All university personnel authorized to conduct purchasing activities shall adhere to these principles and standards. Each employee involved in the expenditure of public funds is held to the highest degree of public trust. No employee shall engage in or permit any illegal or improper purchasing practices, including but not limited to the following:

- Submission of equal or rotated bids
- Kickbacks (Reference the Anti Kickback Act and Public Law 99-6334)
- Conflicts of interest

- Acceptance of gratuities
- Participation in any community of financial interest with bidders
- Elimination of competition or restraint of trade
- Violation of minimum wage or payment schedules for construction contracts
- Violation of standard work week, overtime and safety standards for construction contracts

Any employee having knowledge of any of these practices or other unethical or illegal conduct by any employee should immediately report this knowledge to the Director of Purchasing. Engaging in or permitting unethical or illegal conduct or the failure to report such conduct constitutes grounds for disciplinary action, including possible termination of employment and/or criminal prosecution.

Records

Some form of cost or price analysis shall be made and documented in the procurement files in connection with every procurement action. For price analysis, this would mean keeping copies of all the documentation of the prices and vendors that were compared, identifying which vendor was chosen, and stating why that vendor was chosen. For cost analysis, it would mean keeping written documentation of the determination of whether a cost was reasonable, allocable to that grant, and allowable for that grants.

Sanctions

Failure to adhere to this policy and procedures may result in the administrative suspension and/or termination of a sponsored program agreement and other actions.
