

Mark C. Krieger
Vita
284 Overlook Park Dr.
Cleveland, Ohio 44110

EDUCATION:

M.A. in Communication Research and Methodology, College of Graduate Studies, Cleveland State University, Cleveland, 2001

Concentration: Electronic Mass Media Research
Thesis: The Relationship between Radio and its Audience
Graduating GPA: 4.0

B.A. in Communication, College of Arts and Sciences, Cleveland State University, Cleveland, 1999

Concentration: Mass Media Studies
Minor Field of Study: American History
Graduating GPA: 3.82 – Magna Cum Laude

CURRENT POSITION:

Director of WJCU/Assistant Adj. Professor, Tim Russert Dept. of Communication & Theater Arts: Provide leadership and oversight of all facets of operation of radio station WJCU, including programming, technology, regulatory, budgets, purchasing, contracts, fundraising, staffing, training, and community outreach. Supervise 1 graduate assistant, along with approx. 30-35 co-curricular students and approx. 30 alumni & community volunteer programmers/producers (all uncompensated) on a continuous basis throughout the year.

Courses Taught: CO 150, Radio Practicum, CO 220 American Electronic Media, CO 320, Audio Production, CO 340, Broadcast & Broadband Audio Media

Academic Advising: Communication Majors& Freshman Cohort

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Lecturer, Cleveland State University, College of A&S, Communications Dept. Fall 2001 - Spring 2004

Courses Taught: Mass Media and Society, Group Decision Making, Leadership, Interpersonal Communication, Public Speaking

Teaching Assistant, Cleveland State University, College of A&S, Communications Dept. Fall 2000 - Spring 2001

Courses Taught: Interpersonal Communication

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Technical Consultant & News Writer, BE Radio Magazine, 2001 – 2011

Author of bimonthly digital broadcasting e-newsletter and features in a broadcast technology publication with North American and European distribution

Independent Broadcast Technical Consultant and Engineer, 1998-2004 Northeastern Ohio

Clients include ABC/Cap Cities Broadcasting, Clear Channel Broadcasting, Lorain-Elyria Broadcasting

Game Day Coordinator - National Football League 1999-2004

Wireless Spectrum Management for Professional Sports and Special Events at Cleveland Browns Stadium

Director of Engineering, WGAR-AM/FM, Nationwide Communications Inc., 1985-1998, Cleveland, Ohio

Technical management of 50,000 Watt AM/FM broadcast facility. Responsible for planning, design, construction, maintenance, and technology training. Responsible for all capital purchasing. Managed staff of three.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Regional Broadcast Frequency Coordinator, N.E. Ohio, 1995 - 2002

Co-Chair, Ohio Central and East Lakeshore Emergency Alert System Committee, 1993-1998

Chairman, Society of Broadcast Engineers, Chapter 70 1990-1992

William G Mather Steamship Museum, Volunteer Technical Consultant 1998-2004

ACHIEVEMENTS AND HONORS

Nominated to Society of Broadcast Engineers National Board, 1998

Inducted into Broadcasters Hall of Fame, 1998, Akron, Ohio

Walker Communication Scholarship, Cleveland State University 1999

PT Graduate Assistantship, Cleveland State University, College of A&S, Dept. of Communication 2000-2001

GRANTS RECEIVED

National Association of Broadcaster's Research Grant (October 2001) - Zeroing in on the Radio Audience: Why They Listen. Summary co-presented at 2002 BEA Convention with first author Dr. Carolyn Lin

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Society of Broadcast Engineers, Senior Member

Broadcast Education Association, Individual Member

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

Society of Broadcast Engineers, Certified Broadcast Technologist

United States General Class Radiotelephone Operators License

United States Amateur Radio License, Class: Technician, Call Sign: N8PXZ