

As a member of the undergraduate graduating class, you are cordially invited to apply to be this year's Millor Orator.

In honor of the late Reverend William J. Millor, S.J., who served the University in a variety of posts over 28 years, representatives of the undergraduate community, along with a panel of faculty, staff, and administrators, select a member of the undergraduate graduating class to be the lone student presenter at the commencement ceremony. The Millor Orator is chosen from a pool of senior applicants who desire to be chosen as the only student speaker at commencement. Each applicant submits a written speech and other accompanying materials, and is judged based upon on- and off-campus involvement, leadership, and commitment to learning, as well as content, knowledge, and identification of the University's mission. Speeches should, at a minimum, loosely incorporate or reflect the Jesuit mission of John Carroll University. Applicants are also reminded that they will be acting as a representative of the graduating class, and thus should consider including shared experiences in his/her speech. Finalists audition their speeches in front of the aforementioned panel of faculty, staff, administrators, and students, who then choose the best student on the basis of speech content, knowledge, and identification of the Jesuit mission, as well as poise and presentation.

Applicants must be graduating and participating in the commencement exercises on Sunday, May 18, 2014.

In addition to the cover sheet that follows these instructions, candidates must also submit a resume, personal background information, and their commencement speech.

All applications and accompanying materials are due to the Office of Student Activities, located in Suite 201 of the Lombardo Student Center (above the bookstore), by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 21, 2014. No exceptions!

Applications will be reviewed by the Millor Orator Selection Committee, and invitations to audition will be extended to our finalists on or before Wednesday, April 9, 2014.

Finalists will audition for the Selection Committee, consisting of faculty members, administrators, staff, and students, and must present their speech in its final form at that time. Those who audition will be judged on content, poise, presentation, and style. Auditions will be held on Monday, April 14, 2014.

The Millor Orator will be notified by phone by Wednesday, April 16th. All other finalists will be notified by e-mail.

If you have any questions about the Millor Orator application or selection process, please contact Maura Jochum, Graduate Assistant in the Office of Student Activities, at (216) 397-4397 or mjochum11@jcu.edu.

Good luck!
