Professors: P. Lauritzen, S. E. McGinn (Chair), P. K. Nietupski, E. P. Hahnenberg, Z. Saritoprak; Assistant Professor: K. Tobey

John Carroll University considers the study of theology and religion an integral part of a liberal education. As a Jesuit and Catholic university, John Carroll provides the opportunity for students to choose courses designed to give them an understanding of their faith commensurate with their other learning. The University Core requirement in theology and religious studies is satisfied by two appropriately designated 3-credit TRS courses, one lower-division and one upper-division.

TRS courses at the 100, 200, and 300 levels are open to all students except where prerequisites are specifically stated. Course numbers indicate subject areas, not the level of difficulty of a course. Lower-division courses (100- and 200-levels) involve broad surveys of one or more issues and topics fundamental to the field while upper-division courses (300- and 400-levels) have more specific and limited foci. The 300-level Core courses allow students to engage in more in-depth study of one or more of the issues and topics significant to a contemporary understanding of theology and/or religious studies.

Enrollment in 400-level courses typically is restricted to TRS majors and minors; other students may enroll with the permission of the department chair.

The Department of Theology and Religious Studies offers a major and minor. The major in theology and religious studies may serve as partial fulfillment of the requirement for the certification of elementary and high school teachers of religion in the Diocese of Cleveland.

The department is privileged to offer courses with the support of several endowments: the Walter and Mary Tuohy Chair of Interreligious Studies, the Bediuzzaman Said Nursi Chair in Islamic Studies, the F. J. O’Neill Charitable Corporation Fund (for the Ignatian Spirituality Institute), and the Jack and Mary Jane Breen Chair in Catholic Systematic Theology. For details on these programs, see pages 454-460.

The department also collaborates with the Borromeo Seminary Institute (BSI) in offering undergraduate theology courses for pre-seminarians and other interested undergraduates. For details on the BSI program, including the current list of BSI adjunct faculty, see page 167.
