JULY 18-22, 2016

A writing workshop for students entering grades 9, 10, 11, and 12

THE PROGRAM

The John Carroll Young Writers Workshop will be held on the campus of John Carroll University from July 18-22, 2016, taught by John Carroll's award-winning creative writing faculty.

Students participate in a rigorous and inspiring program that provides an introduction to the art and craft of poetry, short fiction, and creative nonfiction. In morning and afternoon sessions, students study with acclaimed professors, engaging in writing exercises designed to address the elements of craft: form, voice, character, image, scene, and setting. In addition, students will participate in lively workshop sessions in which they will read and discuss each other's work with an eye toward revision. Students will also read and discuss the work of established authors, investigating the strategies they use to craft their poetry and prose. Finally, students will have a one-on-one conference with their core faculty member. We round out our week with a celebratory banquet and reading on Friday afternoon.

The Faculty

DAVE LUCAS, PH.D. is the author of the award-winning book of poems Weather (University of Georgia Press, 2011), and won the 2005 Discovery/The Nation prize for poetry. His poems have been published in The Paris Review, Poetry Magazine, Slate, and Threepenny Review. He teaches at Case Western Reserve University.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

Students entering grades 9, 10, 11, or 12. Space is reserved for a maximum of 30 participants. Students will study in more than one genre.
